Verse 1

Csus2
There were days
G
and there were days Gm                   Eb
and there were days between Dm                Eb
Summer flies and August dies Bb                        F
the world grows dark and mean
Dm                Eb
Comes the shimmer of the moon
Dm                 Eb
on black infested trees F                          Gm
the singing man is at his song
F                  Gm
the holy on their knees
C                     Gm
The reckless are out wrecking
C                      Gm
The timid plead their pleas
Dm                 Eb
No one knows much more of this Bb               F           Eb  Csus2 G than anyone can see anyone can see

Verse 2

There were days and there were days and there were days besides when phantom ships with phantom sails set to sea on phantom tides Comes the lightning of the sun on bright unfocused eyes the blue of yet another day a springtime wet with sighs a hopeful candle lingers in the land of lullabies where headless horsemen vanish with wild and lonely cries

Verse 3

There were days and there were days and there were days I know when all we ever wanted was to learn and love and grow Once we grew into our shoes we told them where to go Walked halfway around the world on promise of the glow Stood upon a mountain top Walked barefoot in the snow Gave the best we had to give How much we'll never know we'll never know

Verse 4

There were days and there were days
polished like a golden bowl
The finest ever seen Hearts of Summer held in trust still tender, young and green left on shelves collecting dust not knowing what they mean Valentines of flesh and blood as soft as velveteen hoping love would not forsake the days that lie between lie between
